SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall submit to a sex offender mental health assessment and a program of sex offender mental health treatment, as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. This assessment and treatment may include a polygraph to assist in planning and case monitoring. The defendant may be required to contribute to the cost of services rendered (copayment) in an amount to be determined by the probation officer, based on the defendant's ability to pay. Any refusal to submit to such assessment or tests as scheduled is a violation of the conditions of supervision.

The defendant shall waive all rights to confidentiality regarding sex offender mental health treatment in order to allow release of information to the supervising probation officer and to authorize open communication between the probation officer and the treatment provider.

The defendant shall not be at any residence where children under the age of 18 are residing without the prior written permission of the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall not be associated with children under the age of 18 except in the presence of a responsible adult who is aware of the defendant's background and current offense, and who has been approved by the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall not view, purchase, possess, or distribute any form of pornography depicting sexually explicit conduct as defined in 18 U.S.C. 2256(2), unless approved for treatment purposes, or frequent any place where such material is the primary product for sale or entertainment is available.

The defendant shall register pursuant to the provisions of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, or any applicable state registration law. The defendant shall submit his/her person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of probation or unlawful conduct by the person, and by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions.

The defendant shall not use a computer to access any on-line computer service at any location (including employment) for the purpose of viewing, obtaining, or transmitting child pornography or other sexually explicit material. The defendant shall not access Internet chat rooms for the purpose of obtaining child pornography or enticing children under the age of 18 to engage in sexually explicit activity.

The defendant shall consent to third party disclosure to any employer or potential employer concerning computer-related restrictions and monitoring requirements.

The defendant shall consent to the U. S. Probation Officer conducting periodic unannounced examinations, without individual showing of reasonable suspicion, on any computer equipment used by the defendant. The examination may include assistance of other law enforcement agencies. This may include retrieval and copying of all data from the computer and any internal or external peripherals to ensure compliance with his/her conditions and/or removal of such equipment for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection, and allow at the direction of the probation officer, installation on the defendant's computer, at the defendant's expense per co-payment policy, any hardware or software systems to monitor the defendant's computer use. The defendant shall comply with a Computer Monitoring and Acceptable Use Contract, which includes a requirement that the defendant use a computer compatible with available monitoring systems. The defendant shall have no expectation of privacy regarding computer use or information stored on the computer.

The defendant shall warn any other significant third parties that the computer(s) may be subject to monitoring. Any attempt to circumvent monitoring and examination may be grounds for revocation.

The defendant shall not possess or use a computer with access to any on-line computer service at any location (including place of employment) without the prior written approval of the probation officer. This includes any Internet Service provider, bulletin board system or any other public or private network or e-mail system.
